CHALLENGER

VOLUME 8

Foreword

The bright light of quality education burned strong in the 1961-62 year at Princeton High School. The teachers, parents, members of the school boards, and students have joined their candles to make this light of education stronger. Without any one of the candles, the light of quality education would be dim. Through the pages of our 1962 Challenger, we have tried to show you the different factors which have fanned the light of knowledge, thus making its beam shine brighter in each life touched.

Dedication

With a feeling of sincere appreciation, the Senior Class of 1962 pauses to pay tribute to Mr. William Dixon, a man whom we truly love and admire. The dedication of the 1962 Challenger is our way of showing the gratitude we feel toward him. He has offered his time, willingly and unselfishly, for outside activities, even though it wasn't required of him. We have learned to love and respect him for his personal interest in students, for his frankness and thoughtfulness, for his happy disposition, and for his high ideals of devotion to the whole school.

Mr. Dixon enjoys a rare moment of relaxation with his favorite book.

Mr. Dixon's at it again! He never tires of helping students, like Freddy and Bonnie, with their subjects.

The editors, Connie and Elaine, really have a big task in overseeing the work on the annual.

Hail to Thee, Our Alma Mater

Stand up for dear old Princeton
She's made by you
Now, all together, prove you can be true
When you shirk your duty
She loses fame
Make them all yell "Bravo"
When they hear her name.

By the lives of students
Her name is made
Stand up for Princeton
She needs your aid.

Principal's Message

DEAR SENIORS:

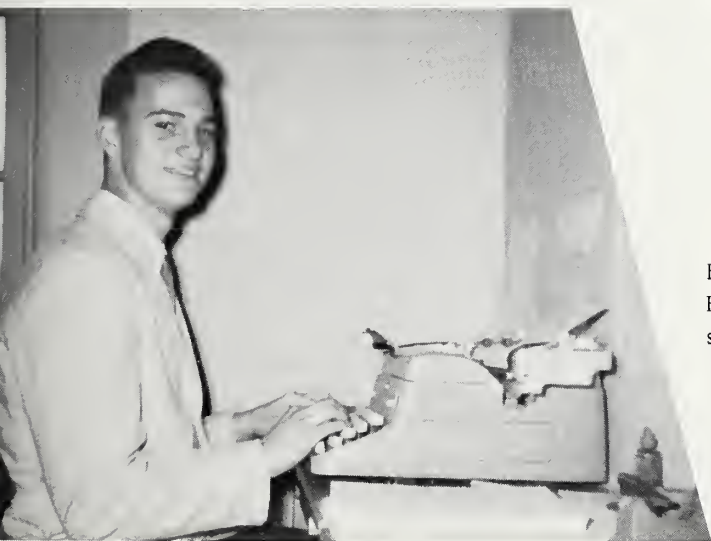

I cannot find sufficient words to express the pleasure I have had serving as your principal and as your friend for the past twelve years. I am going to miss the warm companionship we have had together. Your friendship will always have a permanent place in my heart.

Your parents, your teachers, and I know you must go, as nothing stays the same. We have opened the door by sharing our hearts and our minds.

Leavings are lonely, but going is only a larger kind of living.

Face the world with a smile, resist the evil temptations, do your tasks well. May God bless each of you.

L. J. Worthington

MRS. JOE EONTA

Counseling

Mr. Holt, guidance counselor, discusses with Tony Woodard his plans after graduation.

Bookkeeping

Balancing the school books every month requires much of Mrs. Vann's study hall.

Lunchroom Workers

Mesdames Euzelia Braswell, Fannie Braswell, Martha Pearce, Lizzie Sanders, Madge Lee, Thelma Wilkins, Doris Daughtry, assist Mrs. Clara Parrish in preparing balanced meals for an average of 900 people daily. Their attractive bulletin boards and other displays encourage students to eat all of the wholesome foods served.

Janitors

Mr. Ray

Mr. Bill Ray, chief of police, faithfully directs students across the highway in the mornings.

Amanda Watson and Louis Simmons help keep our school in tip-top condition for all the students.

After 28 years of faithful service Caleb Joyner, janitor, has a special place in the Princeton High School. He probably knows much about our habits of study, tidiness, and play.

Fire Squad

The Fire Squad, under the direction of Mr. Abdalla, during a fire drill dash through the halls checking to see if the building is clear. Eleven hundred students usually evacuate the building in 2.5 minutes.

Patrol Boys

Billy Parrish and Henry Booth direct traffic as students and buses leave school.

Bus Drivers

Shelvia Thompson, Mary Ellen Lawhorn, Frances Hardee, Marie Daughtry, Gloria Woodard, Charles Braswell, Freddy Woodard, Curtis Rains, Durwood Woodall, John Massey, Jerry Rose, George Thornton, Roy Woodard, Tony Woodard

CLASSES

Guy and W. A. enjoy reading the READER'S DIGEST each month along with other seniors and juniors.

MR. DILLON HOLT

General Mathematics

Language

Through a study of language one learns to speak and write effectively as well as to understand and appreciate good writing and speaking. It is the only subject required for four years of every student. A study of grammar serves as a basis for the study.

Most classes go to the library one day a week for research and the use of books and magazines.

In foreign language, the emphasis is placed on learning to communicate with other people. Work is also done with reading and writing the language.

Miss Caviness assists Mary Lou Edwards in improving the organization of her theme.

French students use the record player and tape-recorder to help them master pronunciation. Letters from French pen pals are in the background.

For personal enjoyment and literary knowledge, Tony and Linda check out books.

MRS. DORIS GURLEY

French
English

Tom finds taking the vocabulary test in the fall and again in the spring a good way to check his progress. All students took these two tests.

MISS MYRTLE CAVINESS

English
Civics

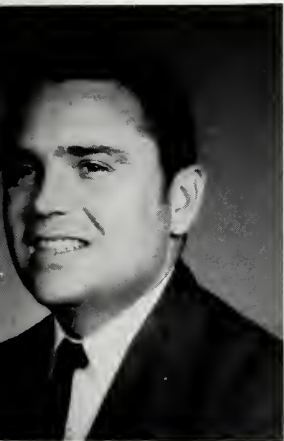

The world history class seems interested in Mr. Talton's lecture on the location of countries.

Don takes over as instructor in U. S. history while Mrs. Hollowell and the juniors look on.

MR. WILLIAM DIXON

Economics and Sociology

Social

Social Studies serves as a strong foundation for the building of conscientious citizens.

One needs a knowledge of man's background in order to plan wisely for the present and future.

Darline concentrates on our national Constitution in the study of civics.

Mr. Dixon studies an income tax blank while Mary Alice practices filling out one.

Lynwood in sociology finds how helpless a blind person feels.

Mr. Creech watches Kathy and Joan as they try to figure percentages.

Woody Daughtry seems to be having trouble trying to solve an algebra problem.

MR. ROGER CREECH

Algebra
Business Arithmetic
Plane Geometry

Mathematics

Through a study of mathematics, students learn to understand the logic of mathematics and its use in everyday situations.

Mr. Holt explains to Renne Royal how to work a general math problem.

Geometry students learn to follow logical reasoning.

Connie and Roy demonstrate to the physics class the principles of Boyle's Law.

Cheryl and Don find that sulphur has many properties and SMELLS.

MRS. CLAUDIA HOLLOWELL

Biology
U. S. History

The bioscope enables Billy, Sherward, and Linda to study the parts of a grasshopper.

Science

All life's successes depend upon a good understanding of natural sciences. Through experiments, observations, and accurate recording of data by a systematic method, the principles of natural sciences are stressed.

MR. A. J. ABDALLA

Physics, Chemistry,
General Science, Health

Jack finds that a magnet will affect a cathode ray while Donna examines an electric motor.

*Thanks, for the many hours you have spent in the lab. Working and the other little things.
Best wishes to you. You can't get it all.*

Home Economics

Home Economics, a way of life--girls in home economics prepare for their roles as wives, mothers, and career women as they learn the basic skills of home-making--cooking, sewing, care of children, budgeting, housing, home safety, and family relationships.

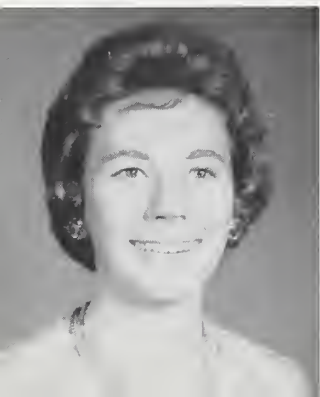

"About what length do you want your skirt?" Betty Lou asks Margaret as they complete their garments in third year home economics.

"Now this is the proper way to bathe a baby," Gail Sullivan explains to her classmates.

MISS JUNE HUMPHREY

Home Economics

"Cooking's fun but this dishwashing business!" quips Linda Gower as second year girls complete their meal.

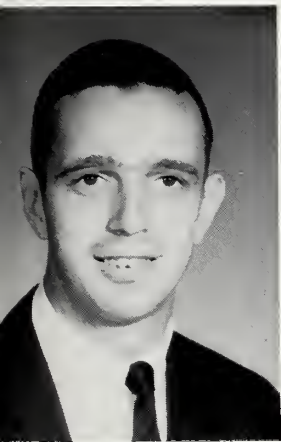

Vocational Agriculture offers the opportunity for students to learn leadership ability and such skills as welding, carpentry, painting, and many basic facts of farming in general. The students practice the motto of:

Learning to Do
Doing to Learn
Earning to Live
Living to Serve

Vocational Agriculture

Mr. Croom supervises as the students complete their shop projects.

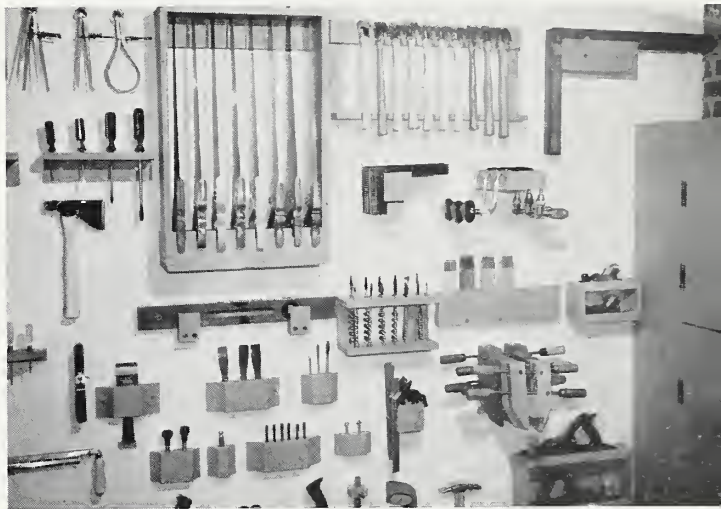

MR. HAROLD ATKINS

MR. HERMAN CROOM

Agriculture

Croom and Atkins, working with Dwight Rowe, Freddy Woodard and Bobby Pearce, are responsible for the orderly arrangement of tools and improvement in the system of checking them out for use.

In a unit of forestry, agriculture boys learn the planting and care of young seedlings.

Atkins instructs Billy Ray Radford in the proper way to prune fruit trees.

Becky and Elaine seem to have unequal debits and credits.

Sue and Kathy run off another edition of the BULLDOG.

MRS. GAYE VANN

Commercial

The Commercial Department plays an important part in any school, whether the student is taking an academic, commercial, or general course.

Knowing the place of business in our society and the management of our own personal business affairs make for good citizenship.

Typewriting and shorthand build appropriate skills for personal and vocational use.

Marie and Wanda learn the "touch system" in Typing I. Marie, don't look at the keys!

"Dear Sir" dictates Mrs. Vann as Mary Ellen and Joyce take the dictation in shorthand.

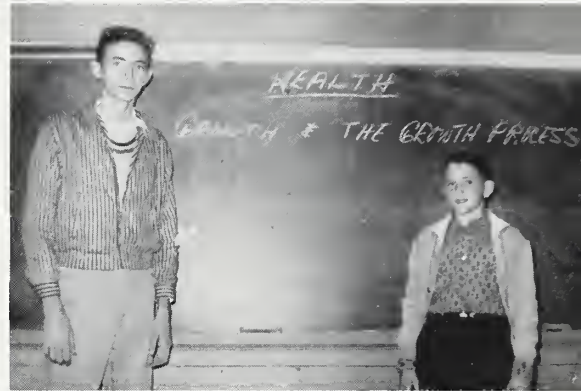

MR. NORWOOD TALTON

World History
Algebra

Darlene Creech takes her turn in tumbling as Gail Sullivan, Rachel Koger, and Lillian Cobb wait in line.

William Earl Parrish and John Thomas Arthur are examples of the difference in growth process.

Health and Physical Education

Students develop good coordination and learn the give and take of team sports. Two days a week classes study fundamental aspects of health. This combination develops healthy students.

When spring rolls around the health students burst into the fun of volleyball instead of playing basketball inside.

Patsy Hartley and Linda Stallings enjoy the new basket system which keeps the confusion of lost clothes out of the coach's office.

MR. RICHARD BEACH - We pay tribute to Mr. Beach who organized the band and directed it for seven years prior to his resignation in January.

Band

Band is taught two days a week by Mr. J. W. Bailey. The Band takes part in many activities such as the county band concert, parades, and concerts for school assembly. It was organized seven years ago.

Marching in the local Christmas parade or band day at Chapel Hill creates interest for band students.

Students beginning in as low as the fourth grade work in beginners and junior band before they can achieve success in the Senior band.

MR. J. W. BAILEY
Band Director

Don Benson, George Thornton, Johnny Tolar, Bobbie Stewart, Tommy Edwards, Sue Barden, Edwina Holt, Henry Booth, Connie Gurley, Glenn Parrish, Larue Denning, Pat Wiggs, Mr. Beach, Lenn Pittman, Franklin Ingram, Larry Howell, Eddie Pearce, and Ronny Creech.

Glee Club

While membership in the Glee Club is elective, it must also be selective, for the director must have the privilege of selecting the group of voices that will do artistic and beautiful singing.

The Glee Club has sung at churches in the area, entertained at chapel programs, and given a Christmas Pageant.

CHERYL ARTHUR, Glee Club Accompanist

Three days a week the Glee Club rehearses at third period.

The Glee Club sang at Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

MRS. GOLDA GASKILL

Public School Music

Public School Music

"Music must take rank as the highest of the fine arts . . . which ministers to human welfare." - Hubert Spencer. Music exercises an enduring and constructive influence in the lives of American citizens.

The elementary grades have music one time a week for thirty minutes. They learn songs adapted to their age and related to their school, home, and community life. They recognize and respond to various rhythmic games, simple folk dances and rhythm band.

Through the listening program students understand the place of music in the lives of every people.

Mrs. Johnson's third graders, Vickie Rowe, Nancy Rowe, Donna Boyette, and Karen Oliver, demonstrate for the P. T. A. what they have learned during music class.

Mrs. Gaskill and her students enjoy using the new piano which the P. T. A. purchased this year.

Private Piano

Aside from other subjects, private piano lessons are enjoyed by approximately 70 students at Princeton.

Mrs. Alice Lee and Miss Anne Lee teach private piano lessons every week day. The students have one thirty-minute lesson each week.

Library Science

The library provides for the students a place for research and recreation in a quiet and informal atmosphere conducive to study. Books, periodicals, art, prints, pamphlets and recordings are all used in the quest for knowledge. The librarian provides guidance and information in book selection and reading programs.

MRS. ELEANOR
BARDEN

Librarian

Mary Ellen Lawhorn, Ruth Gurley, Linda Capps, Nelda Tyner, Gloria Woodard, Sylvia Thompson, Rose Marie Lee, Rose Wiggs, Frances Hardee, Gray Eason, Jo Ann Massey, Shirley Hartley, Linwood Massey, Tony Woodard, Frances Pilkington, Carol Wall, Franklin Pearce, Marie Daughtry, Billy Parrish, Frances Tyner, Linda Gower, Ricky Mileski, Jo Ann Morgan.

Drivers' Education

To train safe drivers on the highway, Mr. Worth Hicks holds a driver's education class during the school months and Mr. A. J. Abdalla, during the summer months. Two days a week they hold classes and three days a week, road work.

STEPS ALONG THE PATH OF EDUCATION

1. Neat attire and shiny shoes indicate the owner's readiness to start the day's search for education.
2. Having walked from home to bus stop, she joins others in the ride to Princeton.
3. Going up school steps is the beginning of a day's work.
4. Tenseness during concentration on answers to test questions is revealed by position of feet.
5. Inquiring about plans for the weekend, a unique mail service is used.
6. Has it been a hard day?--!! Clothes, books, and posture reflect the "wear and tear" of school life.
7. Refreshment and relaxation will give renewed strength to tackle homework before leaving for the ballgame after supper.

Chapter 1 THE BEGINNINGS OF THE UNITED STATES

The first of American government was born in the year 1776. The new nation of government did not suddenly spring into being as if the water of world political magic was poured. It was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage The French, Spanish, Dutch, Swedes, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,300 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to look out their own economic future in the New World. But they came here in search of greater freedom.

Founding Fathers of the new nation developed through long experience. We shall now look at some of these men and their points of view.

The Colonial Period When and how the thirteen colonies were founded is a story that has been told many times. But there is one thing that is true: the colonies were founded by men who were determined to live by their own rules. They were not content to be ruled by a distant king or a distant parliament. They wanted to be free to make their own laws and to govern themselves.

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early Americans had to work hard to make a living. They could not rely on the government for help. They had to be self-sufficient.

the 13th found today. The colonies were not just a collection of separate states. They were a united people. They had a common language, a common religion, and a common way of life. They were determined to live by their own rules and to govern themselves.

that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Federation in 1689.

The Concept of Representative Government A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Elementary Teachers Work on Accreditation

Since November the elementary teachers have worked to get Princeton Elementary School accredited with the Southern Association's Co-operative Study in Elementary Education. This accreditation program will take approximately two or three years to be completed.

Miss Lessie Pearce, our representative, meets with Mr. Lewis, assistant superintendent, for planning and discussion. She is also chairman of the steering committee which heads this program here and serves on the Johnston County Steering Committee. Others on the Steering Committee in Princeton are Mrs. Eleanor Barden, vice-chairman, Mrs. Bettie Talton, and Mrs. Eudelle Brown.

The teachers meet each Monday afternoon for reports and discussion. The elementary faculty is divided into "study committees." They meet after school during the week and prepare their reports. The questions are geared to help the faculty with analysis of the school program and also for self-examination as a teacher. After the reports are made, they are typed into a permanent record book which will be turned in to the county for evaluation.

Elementary

Albert Wilson, Lynwood Higgins, Sarah Godwin, Barbara Massengill, and Dwight Howell are seventh graders who keep up with world events.

Elementary students enjoy their play period and look forward to it each day.

Rosaline Olive and Franklin Denning contributed a great deal to the work done on the bulletin board in Mrs. Dixon's fifth grade.

Fourth Grade students depict for school and community Christmas scene while the glee club sings.

Now that Nellie Jones has reached the eighth grade she finds study of North Carolina history under Mrs. Futrell fascinating.

"Bon jour mon professeur" Mrs. Ingram's eighth grade students learn to say as they study French on T.V.

Mrs. Oliver's fourth grade make social studies alive through art work. (Kathy Creech, Glenn Long, and Becky Olive)

Activities

The Mexican hat dance is demonstrated by Ray Sugg, Anita Braswell, Connie Whitley, Terry Toler, Wilma Barr, James Shipman, Mike Williams, and Freddy Harry, students from Mrs. Braswell's second grade.

In this scientific age elementary teachers such as Mrs. Abdalla demonstrate scientific principles.

Tim Peacock and his mother, Mrs. Eula Mae Peacock, discuss Tim's entrance into school next year with Mrs. Welsh.

Johnny Lee, Dale Langston, Billy Worley, and Donnie Toler watch wide-eyed as John Glenn makes his orbital flight around the earth on February 20.

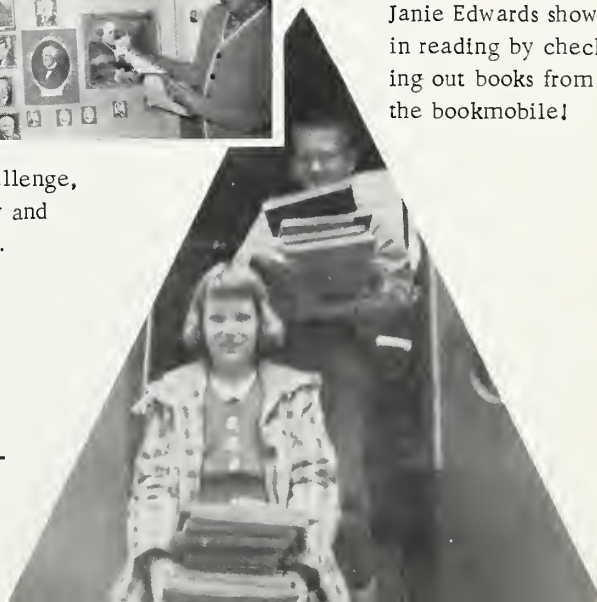

What an interest Janie Edwards shows in reading by checking out books from the bookmobile!

Indeed a challenge, Mrs. Bradley and Gene Parrish.

Even first graders joined in the celebration of Mr. Worthington's birthday in December.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Beta Club participated in the Beta Club Convention held in Raleigh April 6, 1962

The Beta Club is the only honor club in the school. The requirements for membership are to be a member of the junior or senior class, maintain a 90 average, and have good character and leadership.

When members were being initiated, they were dressed as circus clowns with large lollipops.

Beta members along with old members enjoyed the annual prom, April 20.

necoming

On the night of December 15, 1961, Miss Peggy Worley was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1961-1962 by Miss Erzell Wilkins, Queen of 1960-1961, between the girls' and boys' basketball games with Kenly before a crowd of 1500 alumni and friends.

The candidates for homecoming were nominated by the Monogram Club and voted on by high school students. The Queen's court included girls from each of the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade homerooms. Escorts were chosen by the girls from their own homerooms.

The court was star-shaped with the Queen and her court forming the points of the star.

Peggy Worley, Homecoming Queen of 1962, chooses Dwight Rowe, senior class vice-president, as her escort.

The cheerleaders under the supervision of Miss June Humphrey were always present to give support to the team.

"Hip, Hip, Hurray!" yell the cheerleaders as Bobby Pearce leads the Bulldogs on to the court.

The cheerleaders consult their chief, Linda Johnson, on the cheer to use next.

Baseball

When springtime comes around, the boys at school get ready for baseball seasons. Each player works hard and tries to improve himself and the team.

Coach Talton explains to the players how to hold a bat at the plate.

Bobby Pearce squares around to hit sign from the coach.

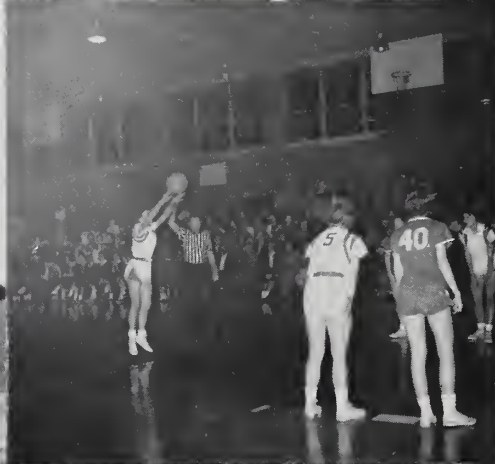

FIRST ROW: Frank Lawhorn, Elmer Britt, Larry Ingram, Harry Ingram, Ronnie Creech, Scorekeeper; Durwood Martin, Marion Worley, Thel Lawhorn, Dwight Rowe. SECOND ROW: Coach Norwood Talton, Keith Peedin, Glenn Worley, Larry Johnson, David Collins, Bobby Pearce, Tommy Cobb and Doug Smith.

Pitcher Doug Smith rears back to throw that rocking fast ball of his.

Big Dwight Rowe slides in at second for a clean hit.

Days have passed and students leave the bright light of quality education carrying their small candles into a dark world. The flicker of the candle will not be extinguished, but through greater experiences of daily living will become a flame guiding each in his own world into a glorious tomorrow.

Cheryl,

I have enjoyed going to school with you in the past years, especially high school. I wish you the best of luck in the future years because if anyone deserves it you do.

Good Luck,
Dunwood

Cheryl,

May you always be a success at everything you do. You're a really sincere and wonderful girl. I hope you have a great year.

Sandra

Well,

I guess there is too much we have done to ^{be} put in here so I'll just say don't you ever forget the nights we've been in Scott's water pit and the ditcher we've cleaned out. I have really enjoyed our years of life. Good Luck with your many problems of get-away and such!

Don't forget to write me in the future. I wish you the best of luck always. Remember always the crazy times we have had in school together. Love, Cheryl Cheryl, I never have liked to start a new page but the other two were full. Even though we were not in the same grade or matter a fact I don't thank we ever had a class together except Glee Club and that I enjoyed very much. But I have enjoyed seeing you at school every day but I guess that is just natural to write about school. I enjoyed that part of school to talk about I guess. I guess it is just natural to talk about I guess. Both I have enjoyed our dates much and I hope they can continue. Both of us would have to give a little and both take a little ^{might} we wouldn't like this. I would like to wish you success in what ever you may ever do. I hope you can get in the college of your choice. Duke is grate I thank. Best of luck and May God bless you always.

Love,
Thwight
